“We are Anonymous. We are Legion. We do not forgive. We do not forget. Expect us.”

Internet vigilantes, hackers, harassers. This faceless organization seems to have many faces, Guy Fawkes being the most prominent semblance. Originating from the worst corner of the internet, and now occupying streets across the country, this group is showing what kind of world we now live in.

I don't endorse all of the acts that Anonymous have carried out. However, some of the injustices that are allowed to take place in our country definitely need to be stood up to. Because of the nature of Anonymous it would be nearly impossible to bring a halt to the growing momentum. In the meantime we can appreciate the things they are doing that are a benefit to society.
